In January 1953 the Transportation Section of DIA-Chemie in Berlin is to be cut to two-thirds its 1952 size. The organization of the office is also to be changed; in January 1953, a special office will be established in Helmstedt and Frankfurt/Oder to control trade between [redacted] and between East Germany and the Eastern countries. The Berlin office will thus function only as a collecting point for reports and an office for the compilation of statistics. The new head of the Berlin office is to be Heinrich Hieberstein, who lives at Berlin, Roetrikstrasse 24.
